

Criteria for making payment to Non Executive Directors

Non Executive Directors are paid sitting fees as remuneration for their inputs and contribution based on their expertise and experience to the Company at the Board and Committee meeting and as required by the Company from time to time.